NRI Secure Receives “Japan Managed Security Service Provider of the Year Award” for Third Straight Year

Tokyo, January 9, 2020 - NRI SecureTechnologies, Ltd. (“NRI Secure”), a leading global provider of Managed Security Services, today announced that Frost & Sullivan recognized NRI Secure with the “2019 Japan Managed Security Service Provider of the Year Award” at the 2019 Frost & Sullivan Best Practices Awards. This marks the third year in a row that NRI Secure honored with the prestigious award in the global security market.

Frost & Sullivan’s Best Practices Awards recognize companies throughout a range of regional and global markets for superior leadership, technological innovation, customer service, and strategic product development. As a result, the award is given to honor companies that marked the highest overall score among the contenders.

“Based on Frost & Sullivan’s analysis, the company recorded a strong growth in SOC-as-a-service, WAF, endpoint, and web security service segments, which drove its MSS business in 2018. As a result, the service provider gained the largest market share in the 2018 Japanese MSSP market, showing good revenue growth and growth strategy. NRI SecureTechnologies is a deserving recipient of the 2019 Frost & Sullivan Japan Managed Security Service Provider of the Year award, receiving this recognition for the third consecutive year.” said Mr. Tetsuya Niihara, Industry Principal analyst, Frost & Sullivan, who reviewed the award.
