

NRI Secure Receives Frost & Sullivan Japan Managed Security Service Provider of the Year Award

Tokyo, June 30, 2017- NRI SecureTechnologies, Ltd. (NRI Secure), a leading global provider of information security solutions, received 2017 Japan Managed Security Service Provider of the Year Award from the research and consulting firm, Frost & Sullivan.

The Awards recognize companies that have demonstrated outstanding performance and superior services in the preceding fiscal year, and are given by Frost & Sullivan analysts who evaluate market participants on the basis of five selection criteria: market share, sales and revenue growth, business development strategy, breadth of services portfolio and innovative solutions, and leadership in product and technology innovation.

In response to the rapid adoption of IoT (Internet of Things) in recent years, NRI Secure has been expanding its services into new domains, and providing a broader range of security services, while being lauded as a leader in the Japanese managed security services market.
